Why am I doing this?

I visited Kogi State, Nigeria in 2010. Two of the many leprosy-affected people that I met were David and Banke Balogun. The Leprosy Mission helped them to set up a carpenter's business and provided a low-cost house. At long last they now have the security and dignity this brings.

I'm aiming to raise a challenging total of £20,000 to help more people like David and Banke to rebuild their lives, rise above their poverty and to leave leprosy behind.
